8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
10

11 FRANK R. LOERA,) Case No. EDCV 14-00397-DTB
12 Plaintiff,)
13 vs.) ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
14 CAROLYN W. COLVIN, Acting)
15 Commissioner of Social Security,)
16 Defendant.)
17

18 On March 16, 2015, the Court granted plaintiff's counsel's Motion to be 19 Relieved as Counsel. It was ordered that Vijay J. Patel was relieved as counsel of 20 record in this matter. Plaintiff was ordered to advise the Court, on or before April 3,
21 2015, of his desire to proceed in pro per or his desire to seek new counsel. Plaintiff
22 was advised that in the event he failed to advise the Court of new counsel by that 23 date, the Court would presume plaintiff intended to proceed pro se, representing 24 himself, unless plaintiff advised the Court otherwise. The matter was stayed pending
25 plaintiff's advisement to the Court regarding representation.

26 As plaintiff failed to advise the Court of his representation by new counsel or 27 his desire to proceed pro se by April 3, 2015, the Court presumed plaintiff desire to 28 proceed pro se. Accordingly, on April 22, 2015, the Court lifted the stay in this

1 matter and ordered that the parties Joint Stipulation be filed on or before June 5, 2 2015.

3 As plaintiff was now proceeding pro se, on May 7, 2015, defendant filed an Ex
4 Parte Application to Modify Case Management Order, which the Court granted on 5 May 11, 2015. Rather than filing a Joint Stipulation, the parties were to proceed with 6 this action by filing Motions for Summary Judgment. Plaintiff's Motion for Summary
7 Judgment was due on or before June 11, 2015.

8 More than sixty (60) days from the date plaintiff's Motion for Summary
9 Judgment was due has now elapsed, and plaintiff still has not filed a Motion for 10 Summary Judgment.

11 Accordingly, on or before September 4, 2015, plaintiff is ORDERED to either
12 (a) show good cause in writing, if any exists, why the Court should not recommend 13 that this case be dismissed for lack of diligent prosecution and/or failure to comply
14 with the Court's prior Order; or (b) file his Motion for Summary Judgment, along 15 with a proof of service reflecting such service.
